Complete Solution. Unrivaled Success

Personalized Employee Homepage

A volunteer program's success depends on effectively motivating employees to get involved. AngelPoints EVS™ gives each employee a personalized homepage that provides an intuitive environment to learn, get involved, and recruit others.

Volunteer Matching

Finding and enrolling in volunteer events is as easy as the click of a mouse. AngelPoints EVS™ intuitive searching and matching capabilities ensure that employees find the exact volunteer events that meet their interests, helping to increase overall participation levels.

Event Management

Coordinating and tracking volunteer events is critical to successful community relations. AngelPoints EVS™ event management, communication, and tracking tools streamline the event management process, ensuring successful results with lower overhead.

Reporting

AngelPoints EVS™ insightful reporting tools provide a complete view of your volunteer programs – volunteer hours, outcomes, geographies, and profiles – allowing you to understand and maximize the value of your program. You can even record details such as lunch options and t-shirt sizes for your event!

Real-time Alerts and Reminders

Automated notifications for critical changes to events and event reminders to record your volunteer activities reduce event management overhead and increase overall tracking.

Recognition

Recognition programs increase employee excitement and participation. AngelPoints EVS™ offers a comprehensive recognition module that includes personalized email templates, fulfillment management, eligibility notification, and automation of Dollars for Doers and other recognition programs.

Volunteer Tracking

Because effective reporting depends on everyone's input, AngelPoints EVS™ provides a central hub to log volunteer hours, outcomes, and feedback for service activities, whether company-sponsored, group-based, or independent volunteer events. Automated email reminders and one-click tracking ensure that even the busiest employees will record their volunteer activities.

Targeted Communications

Targeted marketing works. AngelPoints EVS™ provides the most effective communication tools available, giving managers the ability to target employees based on location, interests, skills, and more. Targeted communications provides employees with opportunities they care about most, increasing their overall excitement and participation.

Security

AngelPoints EVS™ delivers the highest security technology available. Multi-level access and administration, configurable usernames and passwords, and SSL encryption are just some security capabilities that come standard. AngelPoints is also the only company in the market to offer additional security services such as, Ethical Hacks, SSO (Single-Sign-On), and SAS 70 Certification.

Delivered in Multiple Languages

The entire AngelPoints EVS™ application is translated in French and Spanish, with more languages to come. EVS™ also offers the ability to create, publish and promote events in any language.

CRA

AngelPoints EVS™ for CRA provides key stakeholders the data and tools to maximize the impact of community development programs. With EVS for CRA, banks can easily track and report on qualified service events.

Content Management

AngelPoints EVS™ content management tools enable you to easily publish content of interest – volunteer photos, news articles, program information – enabling you to inform and enrich your employees' experience without a webmaster or knowledge of HTML.

Corporate Branding

AngelPoints EVS™ is customized with your company brand and colors. A consistent branded experience fosters a sense of community and affinity with your organization and helps promote awareness and participation.

Microsoft Outlook and Excel Integration

By seamlessly integrating with Microsoft Outlook, Excel, and other calendar programs, AngelPoints EVS™ provides the most efficient and productive user experience.
